

We are very enthusiastic and pleased with the results of the Indiana State Law regarding telephone solicitation. Please don't make rules which would weaken our system which works very well.

We have been signed up for more than a year now and receive practically no soliciations whereas before they were very bothersome.

Thank you for your consideration.